Ames is a treasure trove of art, history, education and industry. Much too much to see in one day - but we will be exploring many of those treasures on this tour.

Our treasure hunt begins at the Anderson Sculpture Gardens and the Art Museum at Morrill Hall followed by a drive through the Iowa State University campus. Next we explore the beautiful Reiman Gardens where we will view both indoor and outdoor gardens and conservatory. You'll feel the joy of stepping into the world of butterflies - in the Garden's 2,500 square foot Butterfly Wing.

After our exploration of the Gardens, we will have some time for shopping before our group lunch at Fuji Steak House. The afternoon concludes with two more University tours: the Brunner Art Museum and the Farm House Museum.
