The day begins in Perry with a tour of the Carnegie Library and Hotel Pattee. The dining areas of the historic themed hotel are works of art designed around railroad history. Be sure to check out the room recreated like a 20th Century dining car.

The main event includes a delicious lunch in an actual dining car as you travel through the Des Moines River Valley in climate controlled comfort aboard a historic train on the Scenic Valley Railway.

One last stop on the way home - which is always a crowd pleaser - for a carousel ride in Story City.
