

The Amish Experience Tour

Kalona and the Amana Colonies

Tues, Oct 8 - Wed, Oct 9, 2024

= Considerable walking, some stairs, balanced with periods of rest.

A Unique Hotel and Amish Heritage Experience

Our day in Kalona starts with a stop at the Welcome Center for Streussel and coffee. We will hear a presentation on "What is the difference between the Amish and the Mennonite people" by Floyd Yutzzy.

We will tour the Amana Museum and do a little shopping before departing for lunch at a Mennonite Home.

Next we divide into two groups and tour a Goat Farm and Ebike manufacturer. (Many Amish communities are allowed to ride ebikes.)

A tour of a Buggy Shop and Stringtown Grocers follows before departing for Amana.

Our overnight accommodations will be at the brand new Hotel Millwright, which pays homage to the Amana's woolen mills of the past.

Day 2 - Relax and Shop in the Amanas

The next morning tour this unique hotel and have plenty of time to browse and shop afterwards. Find a slew of special gifts in the art gallery shops or handmade craft shops that include handcrafted wood furniture or hand-woven rugs featuring traditional Amana designs. Pottery, quilts, and handmade knives and ironworks are also popular. Whether you're shopping for yourself or friends and family, it's easy to find something for everyone in the Amana Colonies.

Our lunch that day will be served at the Price Creek Event Center Dinner Theatre where we will see a first person Grant Wood presentation with Q&A.

If the timing is right... we will have a beautiful view of fall foliage as we travel on our Amish Experience Tour.
